THE JUBILEE PRAYER

*Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, for the coming of your Kingdom.*

*May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.*

*May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.*

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

*To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.*

Amen

MYSORE DIOCESAN BULLETIN MAR. & APR. 2025

SHEPHERD'S VOICE

Dear & Rev. Fathers / Brothers / Sisters / Laity,

Greetings from Archbishop Bernard Moras, Apostolic Administrator, Mysore.

Lent is a sacred season of reflection, repentance, and spiritual renewal observed by the Christians around the world. It spans forty days, mirroring the time Jesus spent fasting in the wilderness, and serves as a period of preparation leading up to Easter. This solemn holy time calls believers to deepen their faith through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, fostering a closer relationship with God.

In the context of the Jubilee Year 2025, Lent takes on an even greater significance as a time of grace and renewal. Pope Francis has emphasized themes of hope, forgiveness, and compassion during this special year, encouraging the faithful to embrace the Lenten season with a renewed spirit of mercy and reconciliation. The Jubilee invites Christians to cross the threshold of the Holy Door, both physically and spiritually, as a symbol of leaving behind past sins and embracing God's boundless love.

One of the most significant aspects of Lent is self-examination. It provides an opportunity to look inward, acknowledge personal shortcomings, and seek forgiveness. This process of repentance is not just about feeling remorse for past actions but also about making a sincere effort to grow spiritually and live more in accordance with Christian teachings. Through self-discipline and sacrifice, such as giving up certain comforts or dedicating more time to prayer, individuals strive to align themselves with the humility and suffering of Christ.

Fasting, a key component of Lent, symbolizes purification and dependence on God. By abstaining from food or other indulgences, believers are reminded of their reliance on God's grace rather than material comforts. Likewise, acts of charity and service to others reflect Christ's love and reinforce the importance of compassion and generosity. In the spirit of the Jubilee, these acts of mercy become even more meaningful, as they contribute to the universal call for justice, reconciliation, and renewal.

Ultimately, Lent in the Jubilee Year 2025 is a journey of profound transformation. It is a time to shed distractions, focus on faith, and prepare for the joyous celebration of Christ's resurrection on Easter Sunday. By engaging in prayer, fasting, and acts of kindness, we can emerge from this season renewed in spirit, with a deeper understanding of God's love and a strengthened commitment to our faith. The Jubilee serves as a reminder that God's mercy is in abundance, inviting all to experience His compassionate love in a more profound way during this holy season.

IMPORTANT EVENTS

ASH WEDNESDAY - 5TH MARCH 2025

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, a sacred season of repentance and renewal. On this day, the sign of the cross is traced in ashes on our foreheads, reminding us of our mortality and calling us to turn our hearts back to God. The words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return," echo the reality of human frailty but also the invitation to seek God's mercy and transformation.

In the context of the Jubilee Year 2025, this Ash Wednesday carries an even deeper call to grace and renewal. Pope Francis has emphasized themes of hope and reconciliation, reminding us that God's love is ever-present, even in our brokenness. This is a time not just for individual repentance but also for extending mercy to others, embodying the spirit of the Jubilee.

As we begin our Lenten journey, may the ashes remind us of our need for God's grace, and may this season lead us to a deeper faith, greater compassion, and a renewed commitment to living in Christ's love. For the Lenten Message of the Holy Father, kindly refer to ANNEXURE I.

ST. JOSEPH THE CHASTE SPOUSE OF MOTHER MARY

St. Joseph stands as a model of humility, faith, and silent strength. Chosen by God to be the guardian of Jesus and the chaste spouse of Mary, he embraced his role with unwavering trust and selfless love. Though little is recorded about him in Scripture, his actions speak volumes—he protected, provided for, and cherished the Holy Family with a heart fully surrendered to God's will.

His chastity was not merely an absence of desire but a profound gift of self, rooted in love and devotion. In honoring St. Joseph, we are reminded that true strength lies in quiet obedience, that holiness is found in everyday faithfulness, and that love is expressed most deeply in sacrifice. In this year of Jubilee, as we reflect on St. Joseph's life, may we seek his intercession to grow in purity, humility, and trust, following his example of steadfast faith and devotion to God's plan.

ANNUNCIATION OF INCARNATION OF OUR LORD

The Annunciation is a moment of profound mystery and divine grace—the moment when the angel Gabriel announced to Mary that she would conceive the Son of God. With her humble and faith-filled response, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38), Mary became the vessel through which God entered the world in human form.

This solemn event reminds us of God's infinite love and His desire to dwell among us. It is a call to trust, to surrender, and to open our hearts to God's will, just as Mary did. Her "YES" changed the course of history, showing us that faith and obedience to God's plan bring forth the greatest blessings.

As we reflect on the Annunciation, may we, like Mary, respond to God's call with openness and trust, allowing Christ to be born anew in our hearts and lives.

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week is the most sacred time in the liturgical year, a journey through the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It begins with Palm Sunday, as we recall Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem, only to witness the crowds turn against Him. Throughout the week, we walk with Jesus through His final moments—His Last Supper on Holy Thursday, His agony and crucifixion on Good Friday, the silence of the tomb on Holy Saturday, and the glorious resurrection on Easter Sunday.

This week invites us to enter intensely into the mystery of Christ's love, a love so deep that He bore the weight of our sins to redeem us. It is a time of reflection, repentance, and renewal, calling us to walk in His footsteps with humility and faith.

As we meditate on the Passion and Resurrection, may we open our hearts to the transforming power of God's mercy, and may we emerge from this Holy Week renewed in faith, hope, and love.

Please Note:

- The collections during the Holy Mass on Palm Sunday are to be sent to the diocese for the purpose of Communio India Sunday to CCBI. A/C name: "Bishop and Procurator".
- The collections during the Holy Mass on Maundy Thursday are to be sent to the diocese towards the fund to care for the elderly and sick priests of our diocese. A/C name: "Clergy Health Care".
- The collections during the Good Friday services have to be sent to the diocese towards the "Hunger and disease" funds. A/C name: "Bishop and Procurator".

EASTER

Easter is the glorious celebration of Christ's victory over sin and death. The empty tomb is a testament to God's boundless love and the promise of new life. Through His resurrection, Jesus brings hope to a world burdened by suffering, reminding us that darkness never has the final word - light and life prevail.

Easter is not just a historical event; it is a living reality that calls us to renewal. Just as Christ rose from the grave, we, too, are invited to rise from our fears, doubts, lethargy and sins into the fullness of His grace. This is a season of joy, of proclaiming with confidence: "Christ is truly risen! Alleluia!"

As we celebrate Easter, may we embrace the hope and peace that Christ offers, living as witnesses of His resurrection and sharing His love with the world.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Divine Mercy Sunday is a powerful reminder of God's infinite love and compassion. Instituted by St. John Paul II and inspired by the revelations given to St. Faustina, this feast invites us to trust in God's mercy and extend it to others. As we pray, "Jesus, I trust in You," we are called to surrender our fears, failures, and sins to His boundless grace.

Falling on the first Sunday after Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday continues the celebration of Christ's resurrection, emphasizing that His victory over sin is an invitation to receive and share His mercy. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation and acts of love and forgiveness, we participate in the very heart of God's divine mercy.

As we reflect on this day, may we open our hearts to receive God's unfailing mercy and become instruments of His love, sharing compassion, forgiveness, and hope with those around us. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy" (Matthew 5:7).

ONGOING FORMATION TO THE CLERGY

In Canon Law, the Church emphasizes the importance of "ongoing formation" for clergy as a means of personal, spiritual, theological, and pastoral growth throughout their ministry. The relevant canons from the 1983 Code of Canon Law include:

1. General Requirement for Ongoing Formation

- Canon 279 §1: Clerics are obliged to continue their sacred studies after ordination and to avoid profane novelties. Their studies should focus on Sacred Scripture, Tradition, Liturgy, Canon Law, Theology, and related disciplines.

- Canon 279 §2: They should also pursue deeper knowledge of human sciences, especially those connected to pastoral ministry.

2. Specific Ongoing Formation Programs

- Canon 279 §3: Clerics are encouraged to participate in pastoral lectures, theological meetings, and spiritual retreats.

- Canon 384: The diocesan bishop must ensure that priests continue their formation, including doctrinal, spiritual, and pastoral education.

3. Special Formation After Ordination

- Canon 661: Religious clergy are bound to ongoing formation to renew and perfect their spiritual and apostolic life.

- Canon 815-821: These canons encourage higher ecclesiastical studies and universities for ongoing theological and pastoral education.

4. Formation for Newly Ordained Priests

Some dioceses establish a pastoral year or special programs for newly ordained priests (often referred to as a "priestly internship" or "first five years" formation program), based on the guidelines in Pastores Dabo Vobis (1992) by Pope John Paul II.

Therefore, in our diocese we have planned to have the ongoing formation for all the religious priests serving in the parishes either as Parish Priests or as Asst. Parish Priests in the Diocese of Mysore and the diocesan clergy ordained from 2014 for three days (31st March to 2nd April 2025). All the priests ordained from 2014 and below are expected to participate in the same without any excuse. Programme will be held at Catholic Centre. Please find the details in Annexure III.

Apostolic Administrator, Diocese of Mysore.

ANNEXURE IMESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS P
POPE FRANCIS FOR LENT 2025*LET US JOURNEY TOGETHER IN HOPE

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We begin our annual pilgrimage of Lent in faith and hope with the penitential rite of the imposition of ashes. The Church, our mother and teacher, invites us to open our hearts to God's grace, so that we can celebrate with great joy the paschal victory of Christ the Lord over sin and death, which led Saint Paul to exclaim: "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Cor 15:54-55). Indeed, Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, is the heart of our faith and the pledge of our hope in the Father's great promise, already fulfilled in his beloved Son: life eternal (cf. Jn 10:28; 17:3).¹

This Lent, as we share in the grace of the Jubilee Year, I would like to propose a few reflections on what it means to journey together in hope, and on the summons to conversion that God in his mercy addresses to all of us, as individuals and as a community.

First of all, to journey. The Jubilee motto, "Pilgrims of Hope", evokes the lengthy journey of the people of Israel to the Promised Land, as recounted in the Book of Exodus. This arduous path from slavery to freedom was willed and guided by the Lord, who loves his people and remains ever faithful to them. It is hard to think of the biblical exodus without also thinking of those of our brothers and sisters who in our own day are fleeing situations of misery and violence in search of a better life for themselves and their loved ones. A first call to conversion thus comes from the realization that all of us are pilgrims in this life; each of us is invited to stop and ask how our lives reflect this fact. Am I really on a journey, or am I standing still, not moving, either immobilized by fear and hopelessness or reluctant to move out of my comfort zone? Am I seeking ways to leave behind the occasions of sin and situations that degrade my dignity? It would be a good Lenten exercise for us to compare our daily life with that of some migrant or foreigner, to learn how to sympathize with their experiences and in this way discover what God is asking of us so that we can better advance on our journey to the house of the Father. This would be a good “examination of conscience” for all of us wayfarers.

Second, to journey together. The Church is called to walk together, to be synodal.² Christians are called to walk at the side of others, and never as lone travellers. The Holy Spirit impels us not to remain self-absorbed, but to leave ourselves behind and keep walking towards God and our brothers and sisters.³ Journeying together means consolidating the unity grounded in our common dignity as children of God (cf. Gal 3:26-28). It means walking side-by-side, without shoving or stepping on others, without envy or hypocrisy, without letting anyone be left behind or excluded. Let us all walk in the same direction, tending towards the same goal, attentive to one another in love and patience.

This Lent, God is asking us to examine whether in our lives, in our families, in the places where we work and spend our time, we are capable of walking together with others, listening to them, resisting the temptation to become self-absorbed and to think only of our own needs. Let us ask ourselves in the presence of the Lord whether, as bishops, priests, consecrated persons and laity in the service of the Kingdom of God, we cooperate with others. Whether we show ourselves welcoming, with concrete gestures, to those both near and far. Whether we make others feel a part of the community or keep them at a distance.⁴ This, then, is a second call to conversion: a summons to synodality.

Third, let us journey together in hope, for we have been given a promise. May the hope that does not disappoint (cf. Rom 5:5), the central message of the Jubilee,⁵ be the focus of our Lenten journey towards the victory of Easter. As Pope Benedict XVI taught us in the Encyclical Spe Salvi, “the human being needs unconditional love. He needs the certainty which makes him say: ‘neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord’ (Rom 8:38-39)”.⁶ Christ, my hope, has risen!⁷ He lives and reigns in glory. Death has been transformed into triumph, and the faith and great hope of Christians rests in this: the resurrection of Christ!

This, then, is the third call to conversion: a call to hope, to trust in God and his great promise of eternal life. Let us ask ourselves : Am I convinced that the Lord forgives my sins? Or do I act as if I can save myself? Do I long for salvation and call upon God's help to attain it? Do I concretely experience the hope that enables me to interpret the events of history and inspires in me a commitment to justice and fraternity, to care for our common home and in such a way that no one feels excluded?

Sisters and brothers, thanks to God's love in Jesus Christ, we are sustained in the hope that does not disappoint (cf. Rom 5:5). Hope is the "sure and steadfast anchor of the soul".⁸ It moves the Church to pray for "everyone to be saved" (1 Tim 2:4) and to look forward to her being united with Christ, her bridegroom, in the glory of heaven. This was the prayer of Saint Teresa of Avila: "Hope, O my soul, hope. You know neither the day nor the hour. Watch carefully, for everything passes quickly, even though your impatience makes doubtful what is certain, and turns a very short time into a long one" (The Exclamations of the Soul to God, 15:3).⁹

May the Virgin Mary, Mother of Hope, intercede for us and accompany us on our Lenten journey.

LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF GOD IN INDIA

Pilgrims of Hope: Discerning the Synodal Path

For we walk by faith, not by sight (2 Cor 5:7)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We, the 145 Archbishops and Bishops representing the 132 dioceses of the Conference of the Catholic Bishops of India (CCBI), gathered at the XIM University, Bhubaneswar, Odisha, for our 36th Plenary Assembly from 28th January to 4th February 2025, send you greetings of Peace, Love and Joy.

The Synod on Synodality, with its emphasis on Communion, Participation and Mission, has deepened our understanding of the Church as the People of God. As a follow-up of the Synod, considering the Final Document of the Synod, we came together to deliberate, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, on how to journey further towards a Synodal Church. The theme of our Plenary was: Discerning Synodal Pathways for Mission.

The Church in India embarked upon three journeys towards a synodal Church. First, at the universal level, in response to Pope Francis' call for a synodal Church, the Conference initiated an extensive consultation process from October 2021 to July 2022, culminating in the collation of reports from 130 dioceses into the CCBI's National Synthesis (August 2022). Secondly, at the Asian level, the Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences (FABC), marking its Golden Jubilee, undertook prayerful discernment by representative Bishops of Asian countries, culminating in the FABC Bangkok 50 Document: Journeying Together as Peoples of Asia ... and they went a different way (Matt 2:12) (March 2023). Finally, the CCBI engaged in a massive consultation process, involving close to 5,000 people, culminating in the Pastoral Plan - Journeying Towards a Synodal Church: Mission 2033 (September 2024).

The CCBI reviewed the fruits of these journeys and prepared the Working Document for the Plenary Assembly. The Working Document outlined ten themes which served as a framework for us to engage in prayerful reflection, listening and discernment. The methodology used at the Plenary was "Spiritual Conversation": listening prayerfully to "what the Spirit says to the Churches" (Revelation 2:7). All the participants felt powerfully the movement of the Holy Spirit. The Bishops expressed their intention to use this methodology in all structures of participation, such as parish and diocesan pastoral and financial councils, in arriving at decisions on administration, governance and ministry-related matters that could help the Church immensely.

Searching for synodal pathways for the coming years, we discerned the following themes that would need attention: Faith Formation and Word of God, Children, Family, Youth, Laity, Basic Ecclesial Communities, Migrants and Refugees, Dalits, Tribals/ Adivasis/Indigenous Peoples, Socially Excluded

People, Women and Gender Justice, Poverty and Equitable Economy, Digital Technology and Social Media, Ecology and Climate Stewardship, Ecumenism and Inter-religious Dialogue, and finally, Peacebuilding. The CCBI will soon share in a more elaborate manner the fruits of this Plenary for the benefit of all.

The purpose of the Synod of Bishops was “to plant dreams, draw forth prophecies and visions, allow hope to flourish, inspire trust, bind up wounds, weave together relationships, awaken a dawn of hope, learn from one another, and create a bright resourcefulness that will enlighten minds, warm hearts, give strength to our hands” (Pope Francis’ Address at the Opening of the Synod of Bishops on Young People, 3 October 2018). The Synod is not a destiny nor a distant future but a process of active engagement. We see our 36th Plenary Assembly as one step forward in this ongoing process.

With sentiments of deep affection and spiritual closeness, we would like to thank you, the lay faithful, consecrated persons and priests, for your participation in various consultation processes undertaken so far and for your prayers for the Plenary Assembly. In our prayers, we gratefully remembered you, the laity, especially the faithful of Cuttack-Bhubaneswar Archdiocese and, with pain and hope, all those who sacrificed and bore witness to the faith during the Kandhamal persecution.

It is our heartfelt desire that we, as a synodal family, journey towards a synodal Church. We invite committed members of the Church to walk together as we seek to take new Synodal Pathways for Mission under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. May Mary, Mother of the Church, who walks with us on our pilgrimage, guide us as we embark on a synodal path with missionary zeal as Pilgrims of Hope, especially during this Jubilee Year 2025 and in the coming years.

Given on February 4, 2025 on the Feast Day of St. John de Britto.
